

18th Annual Winter Baseball Camps
at Binghamton University

January 6th - 18th Ages 7-12 & 13-18

- ✓ Campers meet six (6) nights in January for small group instruction
- ✓ You can choose to attend for one hour of hitting or one hour of defense/pitching
- ✓ Most campers spend two hours for both camps, which provides the best value $$

HITTING CAMP

- Campers will be grouped according to age, and each group will consist of roughly between 3-5 kids in a cage
- These sessions will be a mix of classroom style learning, demonstrations & drill work – leading to a lot of quality instruction and reps
- The focus of each session will be age appropriate. We will cover hitting from head to toe, as well as addressing all parts of the strike zone
- Campers will use Binghamton University's four, fully turfed indoor cages – this hitting facility is widely considered to be one of the best in the northeast

DEFENSE/PITCHING CAMP

- Campers will be grouped according to age & will use Binghamton University's West Gym for all defensive & pitching drills
- These sessions will be a mix of classroom style learning, demonstrations & drill work – leading to a lot of quality instruction and reps
- The pitching focus will be on mechanics, pitch command consistency, confidence & the overall health of the arm
- The fielding sessions will focus on correct fundamentals/techniques to help make every play on the field (EX: forehands-backhands-double plays-feeds)

HITTING & DEFENSE/PITCHING CAMP

- We accommodate campers that would like to participate in both hitting & defensive camps. A two-way camper will simply stay on campus with us for two hours and participate in hitting for one hour and pitching & defense the other hour.

Crack of the Bat Baseball Camps was established in 2002 with one goal in mind - Create an atmosphere for young players in the area that is conducive to learning and having a great baseball experience.

As director of Crack of the Bat Baseball Camps I will continue to work hard to try and ensure that each camper has a great experience while at camp. Some of the most valuable lessons I have learned in life, I learned from coaches on the baseball field.

By employing our campus with college coaches and college players both from the area and that are part of the Bearcat family, we strive to keep the enthusiasm and energy level high. As well, the level of instruction will be geared towards making gains in becoming the best player you can be.

Over the last 17 years, the response to our camps around the baseball community has been heart-warming and the relationships that we've built with area players will last a lifetime.

I feel blessed to have had the chance to work with so many area players and I look forward to working with you and your family at our campus.

Sincerely,
Ryan Hurba,
Camp Director

- Current BU Hitting Coach/Recruiting Coordinator (2005-present)
- NCAA All American 1996
- Former Head Coach Sho-Me Baseball Camp (Branson, MO) (1999-2003)

These camps are open to any and all entrants and are only limited by space.
