Mission Statement

Coos Bay Coast League (CBCL) mission is to provide youth the opportunity to participate in organized Softball and Baseball regardless of gender or skill level. We foster positive development, attitudes and success for a lifetime. We will coach skills, promote mental and physical growth and a healthy respect for the rules of the game and life. We expect children and parents to promote and practice sportsmanship, self-esteem as well as safe and fair play. While providing a positive youth sports culture that teaches life lessons and "Honors the Game" for all players. CBCL is devoted to providing a positive environment where coaches, athletes and parents work together to accomplish our mission; that children are the heart of league.
