John Pierini nominates Mike Aanarud for Website/PR no other candidates, so Mike is Website/PR Director by unanimous consent.

Al Spadaro nominates Chris Arena for Treasurer Nominee no other candidates, so Chris is Treasurer by unanimous consent.

-Discussion of Appointed Vacancies/Division Reps: Al reviewed vacancies and interest described below:

Uniform Coordinator

Umpire Director

Fundraiser Coordinator (Cheyanne Pate has demonstrated interest)

Safety Coordinator (Robert Poodry has demonstrated interest)

Social Media Coordinator

-Division Reps:

Foal

Shetland-(Brad Stone has demonstrated interest)

Pinto-(Brett Vassar has demonstrated interest)

Mustang – (Oliver Matthews has demonstrated interest)

Bronco – (Matt Rado has demonstrated interest)

Pony – (Greg Aguilar has demonstrated interest)

-Fall Ball: total of 110 players signed up, we have 2 Mustang Coaches, 1 Coach in Foal, 2 Coaches in Shetland and 2 coaches in Pinto. Registration ends 08/24. Johnny reviewed the vision for Fall Ball: Sandlot style, low competition, development only, no practice fields reserved by the league, coaches are on their own to find practice fields if desired.

-Open discussion forum: Mike suggested Facebook boosts for registration. Supplementary Rules: Corey has typed up some changes and we can discuss them at next meeting.

-Treasury report: General Started at $13,415.42 ended at $17,885.87 (the increase mostly from Fall Ball registration)

All Star started at $6506.37 and ended at $7379.23

Audrey is requesting that the extra $550 Pony fee for location be taken out of all-star funds instead of the sponsorships for the Pony All-star team. Jeff motions, Johnny seconds, approved.

Pinto raised $7700, Mustang raised $3561 Bronco raised $3825 Pony raised $2741

Projected to have about $6000 in the All-Star account when everything clears.

-We need to set more guidelines on All-Star funds for starting and ending balances moving forward.
