- Mentor Coaching (One Touch)
- Code of Conduct
- Where to find training information E-Train and Safe Sport
- Coaches should have a planned-out practice session
- Coaches keep players forms at practices and games
- Information on printing Lineup cards is on AYSO website
- Law changes especially the one about coaches getting written up if their parent is thrown out
- No games with more than 6 goal differential. There are consequences to demoralizing the kids on the other team. Suggestions to prevent 'Blowouts' - everyone must only pass to the least experienced player (who should be positioned as center mid-field during this time). The team will work to earn the ball back and pass it right back to that one player.
