

2017-2018 Alliance Coach Bio

Name: Anne Triplett

Professional Background: Anne is a videographer for the Christian Broadcasting Network's television show "The 700 Club". She also runs a freelance video editing business, "ATriplettProductions," that creates player highlight reels for college recruiting.

Personal: After coming to Nashville for college at Belmont University in 2008, Anne knew she wanted to dive into the Nashville community through volleyball. Coaching helped Anne find a diverse friend group, amazing support system and now, even a husband. Anne and Anthony will be married the second weekend of this December. Anthony is a sports official so the two share a love of volleyball and understand the importance of spreading this great sport around the Southern region.

Education:

Bachelor of Arts, Major: The Entertainment Industry Studies, Belmont University class of 2012

Coaching:

Head coach: Ethos Volleyball Club, 16s and 12s teams, 2011 to 2015

JV coach and Assistant Varsity coach: St. Cecilia Academy 2011 and Franklin Road Academy 2012.

Coaching Philosophy: Anne's true passion is coaching younger athletes and believes that 12s and 13s are such a crucial time for players not just as athletes but also as developing young adults. By bring a positive intensity into the gym everyday, Anne teaches young athletes the importance of fundamentals, such as ball control and court knowledge, as well as how to be a great teammate. Learning how to be part of a team is critical not only in sports but in life.

Playing Experience: Growing up in Kansas City, MO, Anne played 4 years varsity at Pembroke Hill High School and 3 years club with the KC Twisters.

Top Volleyball Highlights:

-St. Cecilia Academy coming in 2nd place at the 2011 State Tournament

-Winning the SRVA Regional Tournament (club division) with Ethos 12-1s in 2012-13
