

2017-2018 Alliance Coach Bio

Name: Jamie Lundstrom

Professional Background:

I am currently a PE teacher at Charlotte Park Elementary School and coach the West End Middle Volleyball team.

Personal:

I am originally from Chicago, and I moved to Nashville in 2010 as a student at Belmont University. Since then, I have fallen in love with the city and all of the people in it. When I am not working or coaching, I love to cook, read, watch Chicago Blackhawks games, and go hiking at Radnor Lake.

Education:

I attended Belmont University from 2010-2014, where I majored in Psychology with a minor in Education. I completed graduate school at Lipscomb University from 2014- 2015.

Coaching:

This is my fourth year coaching at Alliance Volleyball Club. I have previously coached 14- Teal and 14 Select. In addition, I have coached two ten year old teams for Lions Juniors Volleyball Club based out of Chicago and have coached at high schools, middle schools, and elementary schools all over the Chicago and Nashville area. I am currently the head volleyball coach at West End Middle School.

Coaching Philosophy:

I am a very patient person with a passion for helping and teaching others. I love to coach because it combines my two of my favorite things, volleyball and teaching. I believe that the main reason people play volleyball is because they love it. As a coach, I will work hard to instill the love for the game in my players. I do not expect perfection, but I do expect my players to have a good attitude, to be a good teammate, and to work hard every time they walk onto the court.

Playing Experience:

I played club volleyball in Chicago, Illinois for Lions Juniors and 1st Alliance for nine years. I continued my volleyball career at Belmont University where I played libero for all four years.

- Winning Nationals my 17s and 18s year with 1st Alliance
