

2016-2017 Alliance Coach Bio

Name:

Hannah Vadakin

Professional Background:

College Coach

Personal:

Recently moved to Tennessee from Nebraska. Colorado Native. Loves to travel, try new foods, owns a cat named Armani

Education:

Bachelor's degree from Coker College in Business Administration and Political Science
Master's degree from Doane University in Management

Coaching:

Worked as the graduated assistant at Doane University for two years while coaching club for Nebraska Juniors. Currently the assistant coach for Cumberland University. Worked club and high school assistant positions in Colorado while playing in college.

Coaching Philosophy:

To help young women succeed both on and off the court through life lessons volleyball and being on a team can teach.

Playing Experience:

Played high school and club volleyball for 5 years. Played at the division II level for 4 years.

Top Volleyball Highlights:

Getting bronze at a national qualifier.

Being the first time in over five years to qualify for post season play in college