SOFTBALL RULES of PLAY

GENERAL RULES OF PLAY

(These rules shall be in effect in all divisions)

Background.- These rules were created by a cooperative effort between the Pony Affiliated Leagues within the Coachella Valley. They have been ratified by the Board of Directors from;

1. Coachella Baseball and Softball Association
2. Indio Youth Sports Association
3. La Quinta Youth Sports Association
4. Palm Desert Youth Sports Association
5. West Valley Youth League
6. Palm Springs Youth League

Order Of Rules.- Rules of play are an amendment to the most current, published version of “Pony” and supersede PONY rules. If a topic is not covered in these rules, refer to the PONY rule book.

*PDYSA Rules apply only to PDYSA Teams and therefore do not apply to visiting teams

Managers and Coach Selection.-

1. Managers coaching staff and dugout volunteers shall undergo and pass a criminal background investigation.
2. Managers shall select and be personally responsible for the conduct of their coaching staff and dugout volunteers during team activities.
3. Managers, coaching staff and dugout volunteers shall be issued and wear a current League issued ID. The ID shall be displayed above the waste on their outer most layer of clothing during all team activities.
4. The League reserves the right to deny or revoke access to teams without cause.
5. Managers are required to attend an annual meeting held by their League.

Ethics and Sportsmanship Rules.-

General Rules of Play.-

2. Bats. - Only bats labeled as “Official Softball” and/or “ASA Approved” shall be used.
3. Minimum Players. - A minimum of eight (8) players must be present for each team to start a game. If eight players are not present a fifteen minute grace period shall be given from the scheduled start time prior the umpire determining the game is a forfeit. Teams must finish with nine players unless a player becomes ill or injured. At the desecration of the coaches, umpire or onsite Director, the game may still be played. Coaches may “loan” players to the other team to facilitate the game. If it is decided that the game will be played, the umpire shall remain and call the game. This rule does not apply during tournaments.
4. Standard Pitching Rules.-
  - a. A part of the toe must be in contact with the pitching rubber (pitching plate) when the pitching motion is started. The pitcher may rock backwards by moving the back foot so long as the back foot first movement is toward the pitching plate.
  - b. A player removed from the pitching position may return to that position later in the same game so long as they still have eligible innings available. This may occur only once per game.
  - c. Once the pitcher enters the 8’ pitching circle (whether marked or not) all runners must proceed to the nearest base. Runners shall not fake one way or the other. If a runner fakes the direction of travel while the pitcher has the ball and is in the pitching circle, the runner shall be out.
5. Slide, Surrender, Avoid or Retreat. - The base runner shall slide in a direct path to the base, surrender to the out, attempt to avoid a collision if possible or retreat to the previous base if a defensive play is near that base and there is an immediate potential of a collision in the opinion of the umpire. Failure to do so shall result in the runner being called out. If in the umpire's judgment, the runner attempts malicious contact with the base player the base runner shall be ejected from the game. There shall be no “wing span or hook slides” allowed in an attempt to collide with the defensive player.
6. Defensive Masks – All players must wear defensive face masks at ages 6u and 8u. All infielders must wear defensive face masks at 10u. 1B, 3B and Pitcher must wear face masks at 12u and 14u. Although defensive face masks are only required for specific positions in certain divisions, they are highly encouraged for all players. Players not wearing defensive face masks at specific positions for certain divisions will not be permitted to play any position requiring use of mask. (PDYSA Rule)
7. Must Play.-
  - a. Offence - All players shall be placed in the batting line up. In the event of an injury to a player the offensive line up for that team shall be adjusted by eliminating the injured player’s position. The injured player shall not be permitted back into the lineup for the remained of the game. This applies to the regular season and tournament play alike.
