

Brand Identity Guidelines

Revised: June 2026

Brand Ownership

Our greatest asset is the goodwill associated with the “Pop Warner” name. People all over the world associate the name “Pop Warner” with youth football, cheer and dance activities organized by Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc.

Pop Warner owns the famous “POP WARNER” trademark (the “POP WARNER MARK”), which is protected by Federal and State law and is further protected under various United States Patent & Trademark Office registrations.

Pop Warner retains sole and exclusive rights to use of the name “Pop Warner” in simple or compound appearance (e.g., “Pop Warner Football”) as well as all logos, emblems and other designs and styles of Pop Warner, including any copyright, trademark, service mark or similar matter. Such rights shall include use in all forms of media and are hereinafter collectively referred to as “Proprietary Rights”. Pop Warner shall vigorously protect against any infringement or other misappropriation or misuse of its Proprietary Rights.

Official Logos

Pop Warner has a slate of official logos that feature football and cheer & dance. There are three options: primary, alternate and secondary.

The color palette is red, white and blue, which is symbolic of the organization's leadership in youth sports in the United States.

The white border is required on the Pop Warner logo, regardless of background. Exceptions may be made for a single-color logo.

Logo Options

There are three options that serve different purposes and fit various applications.

Primary Logo: The popular “Little Scholars” logo is to be featured on corporate, broad-based applications when referring to Pop Warner as an organization. It is also the default logo.

Alternate Logo: A variation of the primary logo that features the sport as a subtext. This style logo may be used on applications and environments that are specific to the sport.

Secondary Logo: A simplified version of the primary logo. This logo is preferred for smaller applications and is well suited as an accent element within a larger design.

Secondary

Featuring Both Sports

To feature both football and cheer & dance, Pop Warner instructs that those respective logo designs be featured side-by-side. Be consistent in using the two logos. For example, two primary logos should be paired, and never a primary and an alternate.

Single Color Option

There are special circumstances in which the Pop Warner logo may be reproduced in single color or gray-scale, without its traditional border. The most common application is a white logo on a dark background.

Approval must be granted by the Pop Warner national office before any reproduction is permitted.

Uniform Patch Placement

All Pop Warner participants, football, spirit, and flag, must have the Official Authorized Pop Warner patch displayed on every uniform for games and competitions in order to participate. Football Patches must be placed on left front chest. Cheer patches must be placed in the designated areas on the uniforms as determined by the national office.

Cheer & Dance

Cheer uniforms require one patch only; it can be placed either on the top or on the skirt.

Football

Top of patch should be in line between V-neck and sleeve.

Official Pop Warner patches are sold exclusively through Momentic at www.popwarnershop.com.

Uniform Logo Sublimation

Momentec Brands has the exclusive license to dye sublimate the Pop Warner logo directly onto football and cheerleading uniforms. This means that only uniforms purchased through the Momentec Brands are permitted to include a dye sublimated logo. All other uniform logos must be the official Pop Warner patch.

Partner Lock-Up

Pop Warner corporate partners are granted limited and sometimes exclusive rights to feature an official Pop Warner logo in their marketing programs. Only corporate partners who have received written permission can use the official Pop Warner logo.

Partner logos and the Pop Warner logo should be similar in visual presentation and separated by a vertical line. The Pop Warner logo can be situated to the right side.

Partners have the option to include a subscript at the bottom of the lock-up that reads "Official Partner of Pop Warner" or "Official Partner of Pop Warner Little Scholars".

Logo Misuse

Official logos may not be altered in any way.

- DO NOT condense or stretch
- DO NOT change the opacity
- DO NOT make additions to logo
- DO NOT add drop shadows
- DO NOT crop
- DO NOT make logo too small
- DO NOT change the color
- DO NOT rotate the logo
- DO NOT flip the logo upside down

Additional Logos

In addition to its official logos, Pop Warner owns the rights the several other logos; examples are included below. These additional logos are subject to the same rigorous standards as outlined in this document. These include, but are not limited to:

Pop Warner Super Bowl

Cheer & Dance Nationals

Special Events & Occasions
