

Greenfield Area Soccer Club Expectations

Player, Parent, Coach Expectations

---

Coaches:

Players and parents can expect coaches to provide a fun learning environment.

Coaches will be on time and prepared for training sessions and games.

Players and parents can expect coaches to be fair.

Coaches will promote good sportsmanship and lead by example.

Coaches will maintain good communication with parents and players.

Coaches will hold players accountable who do not abide by good sportsmanship, attendance, in games and practice sessions.

Coaches will work toward not only development of their team, but the individual development of each player.

Players:

Players will come prepared for practice and games with all proper attire and equipment

Players will be expected to give full attention during training sessions and games

Players are expected to always work hard to help improve soccer skills and understanding of the game.

Players should always be courteous of other players and teammates

It is expected that all players exemplify and demonstrate good sportsmanship at all times

Players are expected to be respectful of their coaches, officials and opponents

Parents:

Parents are expected to get players to practice and games on time, as well as pickup players timely

All parents are expected to carry proper sideline behavior

Parents should not yell instructions from the sideline and allow the coaches to properly instruct

If late to practice or a game, parents are expected to notify the coach immediately

Parents are required to fulfill financial commitments to the club

Parents should be supportive and recognize the value and importance of GASC volunteers, coaching staff, team managers, referees, and officials

Do not scold or criticize your child after a challenging game. Encourage them and be supportive.

Be a role model and example to your child by exemplifying good sportsmanship at all times.