

CVAC BASEBALL

Code of Conduct

As a CVAC Parent, or Fan, I agree to the following Code of Conduct:

- I will treat all participants with respect, being positive and constructive at all times to players and coaches.
- I will not use abusive or profane language or gestures, and will control my anger at all times.
- I will treat all umpires with respect, recognizing that baseball rules involve judgment.
- I will not openly criticize the umpires or participants during the game.
- If I have concerns about players, coaches, umpires, fields or any other aspect of CVAC, I will direct them to the appropriate League Official, away from the field.
- I will cheer positively, providing encouragement for members of both teams.
- During the game, I will remain in the stands, away from the dugouts, and off the field unless requested by the coach to give assistance.
- I will support my child's commitment to the team by assuring his/her attendance at practices and games.
- I will notify the coach if my child is unable to attend a practice or game.
- I will respect the private property of those living near areas of play, with regard to parking, noise, garbage and trespassing to retrieve balls.
- I will not use tobacco products or consume alcoholic beverages at any CVAC field event.

Failure to follow the Code of Conducts may lead to disciplinary action including, but not limited to:

- Player or coach ejection from game
- Forfeiture of game to opposing team
- Player or coach suspension from future games
- Player or coach removal from league
- Parent removal from the event

By clicking yes you confirm that we have read and understand the above provisions, and will support CVAC in insisting on good sportsmanship at all times.
