

CVAC BASEBALL

Player Code of Conduct

As a CVAC Player, I agree to the following Code of Conduct:

- I will have respect for the equipment.
- When at bat, I will always wear my helmet, and not remove it until I return to the dugout.
- As a catcher, I will always wear the proper equipment as provided and recommended by the league and Pony Baseball.
- I will always wear the proper uniform, in the proper manner.
- I will not display anger directed at an opposing player, coach, umpire, teammate or myself.
- I understand that I could be ejected from the game for this type of behavior.
- I understand that if I intentionally throw my bat, helmet, glove or other piece of equipment, I will be subject to ejection from the game at the discretion of the umpire.
- I will try to be responsible while at bat and not throw my bat unintentionally. If I do, in most cases a warning will be issued. Any subsequent offense will result in an out or ejection at the discretion of the umpire.
- I will play hard, but in a safe and responsible manner.
- I will not intentionally endanger another player in any way.
- I will not use abusive or profane language or gestures, or participate in any form of trash talk or negative cheering.
- I will exhibit and promote sportsmanlike conduct, encouraging my team members to cheer positively and shake hands with the opposing players after each game.

Failure to follow the Code of Conducts may lead to disciplinary action including, but not limited to:

- * Player or coach ejection from game
- * Forfeiture of game to opposing team
- * Player or coach suspension from future games
- * Player or coach removal from league
