PARENT / PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

The cornerstone of character-building and ethical conduct in sports lies in sportsmanship, reflected in principles of respect, responsibility, fairness, and good citizenship.

As a parent in Canyon Hills Little League, I pledge to uphold positive support, care, and encouragement for every player participating in our Little League Community by adhering to the following code of conduct:

- I will foster good sportsmanship by consistently demonstrating positive support.
- I will refrain from any unsportsmanlike conduct towards officials, coaches, players, or parents, including boozing, taunting, or using inappropriate language.
- I will prioritize my child's enjoyment and development in sports over winning.
- I will support the coaches, players, and officials with respect and positive encouragement.
- I will ensure my child's safety by communicating any relevant health concerns to the coach.
- I will familiarize myself with the rules and regulations of the league.
- I will exemplify good sportsmanship by refraining from unsportsmanlike behavior or language.
- I will prioritize fair play and teach my child to resolve conflicts peacefully.
- I will encourage my child to respect all individuals regardless of differences.
- I will refrain from criticizing or yelling at my child or others for mistakes.
- I will maintain a drug, tobacco, and alcohol-free environment at sports events.
- I will respect the authority of officials and coaches and address concerns privately and respectfully.
- I will refrain from coaching unless officially designated as a coach.

Furthermore, I acknowledge that failure to comply with these rules may result in disciplinary action by the Canyon Hills Little League Board of Directors, which could include, but is not limited to:

- Verbal Warning
- Written Warning
- Parental / Participant suspension from games
- Parental / Participant season suspension
- Parental / Participant removal from all league activities

The Canyon Hills Little League Board of Directors reserves the right to determine appropriate disciplinary action for any conduct infraction.
