II. Department Reports

- Treasurer's Report: Dave Shockey presented the financial report, noting strong account balances, ongoing fund reconciliations between concession receipts and operating accounts, settlement of fall jersey invoices, and strong early sponsorship commitments including new partnerships with Eggert Aquatics, Station 21, and Notre Dame High School.
- Little League: Paul Alfieri reported that Tee Ball enrollment is expanding rapidly, with social media advertising active ahead of the February 13 regular registration deadline, after which late fees will apply. The league is hosting an upcoming coaches clinic, and 12 local umpires are enrolled in the District 12 training certification course.
- Softball: Jake Zalaznick reported that enrollment is progressing with a strong influx of new players, noting expanded territory eligibility allowing players from HTRBA, portions of Ewing, and Hopewell to register directly with Lawrence Little League to field rosters across all three divisions. Preseason instructional clinics are scheduled at the Thunderdome with Coach JP from the Montgomery Mavericks, a catchers clinic led by Danielle Nevius and high school volunteers, and continuing instruction supported by Angela P.
- Babe Ruth League: Carly Vichroski reported steady early registration with parent outreach underway, evaluation of a potential soft interleague merger with WEMU for tournament play, and indoor winter workouts scheduled to commence in February.
- Competitive Travel: Matt Heady reported that indoor winter workouts commenced on New Year's Eve across five competitive rosters, including a newly formed 10U squad, with teams preparing for spring USABL competition.
