II. Department Reports

- Treasurer's Report: Dave Shockey presented the financial report, noting standard seasonal disbursements for general liability insurance, player uniforms, umpire training clinics, and operating supplies.
- Little League: Paul Alfieri reported total league registration reaching 460 participants, positioning the program as the largest youth league in Mercer County. All manager and coach positions across every division are filled for the spring season. Enrollment includes 52 players from Ewing, with significant expansion in the 9/10-year-old division. Following the weather cancellation of Assessment Day, an informal workout drew approximately 50 players. Spring training sessions at Centercourt Lawrence are underway with 36 registered participants, and Cadet umpires completed all required certification training ahead of Opening Day.
- Softball: Enrollment reached a record 74 players (a 30% increase from 2023), fielding two teams in each division (Rookies/Coach-Pitch, Minors, and Majors) supported by returning managers and assigned team sponsors. The District 12 softball meeting confirmed schedules are 75% finalized, with recruitment active for an additional Minors head coach and assistants. Post-season special tournaments were announced, including the Florence 8U Coach-Pitch tournament (week of May 28) and the Bordentown 9U Father's Day tournament (week of June 10). Summer camp details were finalized for the week of August 12 featuring instruction from Grind, Train, Perform (GTP) in coordination with municipal recreation requirements.
- Senior League: Paul Vichroski reported the official completion of the cooperative interleague merger with Ewing and Hopewell, fielding four balanced teams across 55 registered players. Practices begin in early April with regular season games starting April 16 utilizing fields across Lawrence, Ewing, and Hopewell.
