Dear Members

USRowing is on the move.

For the first time in 24 years, the world rowing championships returned to the United States and was an overwhelming success for the local organizing committee, the volunteers, fans and participants. FISA's President, Jean-Christophe Rolland, said that "The local organizing committee and USRowing established the gold standard for hosting future world championships."

The success of all of the U.S. national teams included multiple medal performances for the junior, under 23, senior and para-rowing teams. The foundation is being set not only for a successful campaign for the Tokyo Olympics in 2020, but also for Paris in 2024 and beyond.

For the third straight year, membership saw tremendous growth with increases in both new and returning members. Our team continues to work with organizing committees and to listen to our members as we introduce further enhancements throughout the year.

Participation in USRowing regional and national regattas continue to exceed expectations, and members can expect new initiatives that will continue to enhance both the competitive, as well as the "off the water" experience.

The success of the para-rowing team at the recent world championships is not only a reflection of these athletes and their coaches' commitment to performance but represents a growing constituency within our community. USRowing, along with our partners at the USOC, the Department of Veteran Affairs and member organizations, will continue to expand the support for these athletes and programs.

More international events will return to the United States. The 2018 World Rowing Masters Championships will be hosted in Sarasota, Fla., from September 26-28. USRowing also is in discussions with FISA to host additional events including junior, under 23 and senior world rowing championships. Our objective is to host each one of these events prior to the 2028 Olympic Games in Los Angeles.

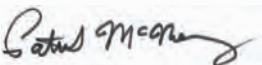

This packet outlines the details of the 2018 USRowing Membership and Insurance Program. The comprehensive insurance services offered to our members by Roehrs and Company, Inc., and the Philadelphia Insurance Companies support regattas and provide coverage for running local club activities. This includes supplementary medical coverage for members, vehicle insurance for rental equipment, liability coverage for SafeSport-related issues and much more. The details are included inside.

The use of certified USRowing referees and the application of the Rules of Rowing are a fundamental part of organizing a successful and fair event and reduces the risk at these events. Please encourage your members to not only support these volunteers during events but to also consider becoming one. The view is incredible, and it is an important and valuable way to give back to the sport.

In 2018, members will see the launch of several new initiatives including educational services that focus on improving the experience of club leaders and members, athletes and coaches, as well as referees. This is your basic administrative fee at work, continuing to improve the support for both current and future rowers.

USRowing continues our work to move our sport toward the future and welcomes your continued support, as well as feedback. Our goal is to provide the relevant services and resources that promote and grow the sport. We welcome your input and can be contacted through our member services team.

Good luck in 2018!

Patrick McNerney

Organizational FAQs

Why does my program need an organizational membership with USRowing?

USRowing organizational membership is required in order to compete at the more than 200 USRowing sanctioned and owned regattas held nationwide every year. The membership provides your organization with access to our membership portal, which is the strongly recommended way to keep track of athlete compliance. Additional benefits, such as complimentary event promotion and access to coaching education, are listed on page 4.

Do all my members of an organization need to be members of USRowing and sign a waiver (online)?

Yes. Athletes or coaches without at least a current Basic Membership and signed waiver may not be eligible to receive insurance coverage in case of an incident. Tracking compliance online via your portal's active roster guarantees that USRowing and its insurance partner can quickly confirm the membership status of any participant filing an insurance claim.

My organization is holding a fundraiser that will include individuals that are not part of our club (such as National Learn to Row Day or a Learn to Row event). Are we still covered?

Yes. Miscellaneous special events and activities that involve groups other than your members (or USRowing members) are included automatically with your membership, subject to underwriting review. Please alert USRowing to any special events where you intend to host that require specific insurance coverage such as selling liquor, camps, etc. Paper waivers are accepted for participants in these types of events.

Our member organization also operates canoes, kayaks and stand-up paddle boards. Would these watercraft be covered under USRowing's insurance policy?

Yes, as long as these watercraft represent less than 30% of your fleet and you are not renting to the general public. More and more communities are expecting boathouses to be multi-purpose waterfront venues that serve a larger base. USRowing now offers multi-watersport coverage options for organizational members. Coverage includes canoes, kayaks and stand-up paddle boards for an additional fee of $400 for clubs already enrolled in our insurance program. This does not cover exposure for dragonboats. You can sign up by logging in to the organizational membership portal at <http://usrow.us/OrgMember>.

What about other coverage that is not provided for my organization through the standard USRowing membership?

Starting this year, additional insurances – such as the Multi-Watersport Coverage listed above – can now be bought through the USRowing organizational membership portal at any time. Insurance options include crime insurance, hired & non-owned auto physical damage insurance and access to program-specific Directors & Officers and equipment insurance.

Will my member organization be covered if I race in an international event?

Your USRowing coverage is valid only in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico. If you are attending an event outside these territories, you will need to contact Roehrs & Company about purchasing foreign liability coverage at (610) 363-7999.

What is SafeSport, and what does it mean for our organization?

USRowing requires that all member organizations join us in the SafeSport campaign to protect athletes across the country. All USRowing member organizations are required to have an athlete safety program. While the primary focus is to safeguard children, policies should extend to all age groups.

Is the sale of alcohol by our organization covered?

The sale of alcohol is not covered, but host liquor liability is included in the coverage and that includes fundraisers, banquets, etc., where you may serve alcohol as part of the function. If your organization is in the business of selling alcohol, you need to purchase specific coverage for this risk. Please call Roehrs & Co. at (610) 363-7999 for a Liquor Liability application.

Organizations

1) Administrators, coaches, and directors manage rosters and their account by visiting: <http://membership.usrowing.org>.

2) Login to your organizational account with RegattaCentral username and password or click "Join" to begin a new organization.

3) As an organizational manager, you can renew your membership, manage your account, manage your roster and also pay for athlete memberships in bulk.

4) Archive former crew members, delete non-members, add new athletes and merge duplicate accounts!

Archive, delete, merge and process memberships all in your roster.

FAQs:

Why do some athletes have duplicate records?

1. An athlete hasn't affiliated with the club and, therefore, is not on the roster. To remedy, she or he created a new account.
2. An athlete forgets his or her member number or password, has trouble logging in and creates a new account.

Where do I get my admin or club code?

These codes are emailed to you throughout the year. You also may find your club code in the "Settings" tab of your roster. Please contact members@usrowing.org or 1-800-314-4769 with any questions about your admin or club code. Note: Your organizational member number is not your Club Code.

An athlete says s/he completed the waiver but it does not appear on my roster. Why?

Athletes must affiliate with your organization in their account using your club code (found in the "Settings" tab of your roster). An athlete may have signed the waiver, but if she or he has not affiliated, she or he will not be on the roster.

The roster portal will show a coach if waivers have been signed. A green checkmark indicates a valid waiver. If checkmarks are missing, athletes must complete their waiver in order to compete.

Please note: At the end of the process, athletes will be asked if they plan to compete in a national team selection event this year. This includes national selection regattas and national team trials. For most, this answer is "no." If "yes", the athlete will be prompted to view the US Anti-Doping video and questionnaire.

USRowing is here to help. If you or your athletes have difficulty with membership accounts, reach out and let us know. We love to hear from our members and value your feedback. Call us at 1-800-314-4ROW (4769) or email us at members@usrowing.org.

What To Do In the Event of a Claim

It is important to notify your insurance company of a claim (or potential claim) immediately after the incident occurs, so it may be involved in the entire claims process. If property damage is involved, take pictures of the damage if possible. Protect the property from further damage (save any receipts if expenses are incurred to do so). Do not admit liability. Obtain contact information for any other involved parties. Get names and phone numbers of any witnesses. Report to the police if a crime has been committed (like theft). Call Roehrs & Company at 888-467-3557 as soon as possible to report any incident which may be covered under your insurance, or if you receive an attorney letter of representation or lawsuit. If you’re not sure if you have a claim, consult your agent to discuss the incident in detail.
