Common areas at the field have been a mess. The Kehayias family has agreed to phase in large ketchup pumps vs. packets. Mike Seaton will send out a league-wide e-mail to parents asking them to lean up after themselves and their kids. Dave Greenwood distributed a cleanup proposal idea that will be sent out and has ordered small dustpans/brooms/trash barrels to be put in each dugout.

Sponsorship update

We are close to on pace with last year. On 5/10/21 we had $40,560 in sponsorship revenue. On May 10, 2022, we have $37,175.

1:10:1

General Ledger update

Brian Taggart sent out a general ledger to the board earlier in the day and recapped it at the meeting.

5:10:3

Player agent update

If a call-up is needed in the minors, the instructional league player must still play all of their games for that team but they can also fill in part time or full time on the minors team. They are not glued to one specific minors team.

5:10:4

Board update

Just as an FYI, Mark Loewen resigned from the board a couple of weeks ago. For now, his spot will remain vacant and we will go with a 16-person board.

5:10:5

All-Star Manager Selection Committee update

The All-Star Manager selection committee recommends the following managers by age group for the upcoming All-Star Tournament. 12-year-old team: Rich Curran. 11-year-old team. Mike Liendo. 10-year-old team: Rob Lopez. With a quorum not in place, Ian Browne will send an e-vote out to get these managers approved by the board. The selection meeting for All-Star players will take place on May 23.

All-Star eligibility update

Some news. Hyde Park resident Justin Lopez, age 10, was granted a waiver by Little League International and is now eligible for Tournament Play for the rest of his Little League career. His father's long-time involvement coaching in our program likely played a role in the waiver being granted.

Rules Violations and district

Parkway Little League

West Roxbury, MA 02132

On a recent visit to the complex, the district pointed out several rules violations during our games. The biggest things; There are no on-deck batters in Little League. Also, coaches need to stay in the dugout of very close to the outskirts of it. Via safety officer John Burns, all division GMs have been made aware of the violations and disciplinary measures if their team doesn't cooperate.

5:10:8

Corrib raffle tickets

Envelopes were handed out to each team. Each team is asked to sell five tickets at $20 each. Teams should give their tickets and collected cash back to the GM for their division. Kevin Boczkowski will collect envelopes from Majors managers.
