Notes

- With the absence of the President, Vice President, Evan (Secretary) called the meeting to order.
- 5 field sponsors have been committed at $1,300 each
 - Howard K Hill now a field sponsor
 - Assa Abloy is now a league Sponsor at $2,500
- League has purchased two pitching machines
- City will likely add the snack shack after the spring season
 - The snack shack will be what we want, but will not be installed by May 10

- 291 registrations, minus 3 doubled = 288 total player registrations for the spring season
 - 5 spots remain for Majors
 - 4 spots remain for Tball
- Coaches
 - Majors: Adiel, Shawn, Dave, Wayne (all managers are set)
 - JM: Mike, Billy, Chris, Ed, Eric, Hungry (all managers are set)
 - CP: Evan, Alex, Jes, Steve (two managers still needed; Evan offered to help facilitate filling these spots)
 - TBall: Ed read off several names (one manager is needed)
- Ed summarized a Player Draft document outlining the 2025 player draft for Majors and Junior Majors, including:
 - Player assessments
 - Draft policies
 - Siblings
 - Children, grandchildren
 - Secrecy: No player can be told what round they were picked in
 - Full redraft will occur, rather than player-by-player team
 - Shawn recommended the following amendment:
 - A player who does not attend assessments will be represented in the draft by a red number with no name. This will be a blind draft scenario to encourage fairness.
 - Board voted unanimously to approve.
 - Assessments will occur on April 7, 9, and 10 at the Fieldhouse (from 6pm-8pm) and all hands must be on deck to support
 - Board voted on Ed's Ass
 - Following Assessments, draft times are to be determined for Majors and Junior Majors by manager availability.

- Agreement that a meeting must take place to discuss the opening day parade; this will be determined later.
- Meeting adjourned at 8:02 pm
