

Dear friends of JLL:

The 2024 baseball season is approaching and we need your support once again. We are trying to elevate our league in many ways. In order for us to reach our goals we need the continued support from our parents, league officials, and the sponsors of the JLL. We understand that the past couple of years have been challenging in many ways for businesses and families.

We appreciate all of our sponsors and hope for a better Future for all. We have a variety of sponsorship opportunities listed below. The JLL family would like to thank you in advance for considering the opportunities below to help us reach our goals by making this the best experience for all involved. We are only as strong as our sponsors allow us to be!
