What is School of Soccer Plus?

Perfect Balance

School of Soccer Plus combines professional individual training with exciting team game experiences.

2022 to 2019

Enhanced play-based learning with training and games combined in a single session. Perfect for developing fundamental movement skills and soccer basics.

2018 to 2010

Individual skill development during weekday training sessions plus World Cup team games on Saturdays for the complete soccer experience.

Why School of Soccer Plus

Professional Coaching Throughout

- No volunteer parents
- Certified coaches for both training and games
- Small player-to-coach ratios ensure individual attention
- Focus on proper technique and skill development

Development-First Philosophy

- Skills and fun prioritized over winning at all costs
- Age-appropriate game formats and field sizes
- Positive coaching that builds confidence
- Focus on long-term player development

Flexible Commitment Options

- Choose training-only if you prefer individual development
- Add Saturday team games for the complete experience
- Multiple weekly training options (1x, 2x, or 3x per week)
- No pressure to commit to expensive travel teams

No Additional Team Practices Required

- Individual skill development happens during weekday training
- Team chemistry builds naturally during Saturday games
- Parents don't need to coordinate additional practice schedules
- Perfect for busy families juggling multiple activities

The World Cup Team Experience

Pre-Season Team Draw

Live Zoom team draw event where each player selects their World Cup country (Argentina, Brazil, Germany, Spain, etc.). Players represent their country for the entire 6-week session, creating excitement and national team pride!

Team Colors & Uniforms

Players simply wear any shirt in their country's color (Argentina = Light Blue, Brazil = Yellow, Germany = White). No expensive uniforms to purchase—any soccer gear in the right color works perfectly.

Saturday Game Day

Teams stay together for all 6 weeks with structured games led by professional referees. Age-appropriate formats create an authentic World Cup atmosphere with genuine country pride!

Team Building

Players learn about their country's soccer history, develop team identity, and experience representing something bigger than themselves, complete with fun facts about their World Cup nation.

Frequently Asked Questions

Will teams practice together during the week?

No. Our philosophy focuses on individual skill development during weekday training, then applying those skills in team games on Saturday. This gives the best of both worlds without over-scheduling families.

What if my child doesn't like their World Cup country?

The team draw is part of the fun! Players learn to embrace their country and often discover new favorites. We make each country special with fun facts and history.

Do I need to buy a specific uniform?

No expensive uniforms needed! Any shirt or t-shirt in your country's color works perfectly. Argentina wears light blue, Brazil wears yellow, etc.

Are there standings or playoffs?

No. We focus on development and fun rather than competition and pressure. Every game is about learning and enjoying soccer.

What if my child misses Saturday games?

We understand life happens! While consistent attendance helps team chemistry, we're flexible for occasional absences.

Is this suitable for beginners?

Absolutely! Our professional coaches work with all skill levels, from complete beginners to experienced players.

What happens if it rains on Saturday?

We have weather backup plans including makeup sessions if needed.

Can siblings be on the same team?

The team draw is random, but we can accommodate special requests when possible during team formation.
