Nationals earn 4th win of the season!

William Bordenet started the game for the Nats giving up 1 run in the 1st inning and striking out 6 batters in 2 innings of work. Ryder Green entered in relief to close out the win and held the Mariners scoreless the rest of the way. Mariners Coach Norwood commented, “Hats off to Nationals pitching staff for their performance on the mound.”

Nats kept the ball in play on offense up and down the lineup. Easton Toups hit a 3-run inside the park home run and also had a 3 RBI triple in the game. Reed Merritt reached base and scored on every at bat to put his stamp on this dominant team victory.

Jacob Norwood hit an RBI double for the Mariners. Langston Franklin and Jackson Norwood also collected hits in the loss.

Notable--- Toups caught all game for the Nats and now has 3 straight games with a throw out on would be steals.

Cubs.....2
Braves.....8

Braves notch 7th win of the season to remain in 1st place in the division standings!

Porter Richardson was the star of the night for the Braves giving his team a great performance on the mound. He pitched a 6 inning complete game, striking out 8 batters while only giving up 1 earned run and 1 walk in the win.

Braves had two really nice double plays on defense. Luke Thomason caught a soft liner at 1st base and then doubled off the runner at 1st base before he could get back to the bag. Richardson helped his own cause by catching a line drive come backer and then doubling off the runner on 3rd base to get out of a tough inning.

Tillman Kelley had a big triple and a clutch RBI to lead the Braves on offense.

Braves Coach Walsh commented, “Shoutout to the Cubs for a great game. Their starting pitcher Grayson Spears went 4 innings and really kept us in check all night. Tucker Fults had a great double and both Pierson Stearns and Ridar Boatman both had two hits on the night.”

Nationals.....11

Nationals earn 5th win of the season and keep within striking distance of the division leaders!

Nolan Gunter started for the Nats on the mound and settled in to toss a scoreless 2nd inning after giving up 3 runs in the 1st inning. Easton Toups entered in middle relief allowing only 1 run and striking out 5 batters in 2 innings of work. Reed Merritt closed the game allowing only 1 run. William Bordenet extended his 4 game streak of throwing out runners at 2nd base. Toups received Bordenet's throw down and applied the tag to end the game.

Nationals leadoff hitter Bordenet walked, stole every base including home to start the scoring 1-0. Bordenet stole home twice in the game and added a sacrifice RBI late in the contest. Merritt and Jaxson Kirby also stole home to contribute to the scoring. However, it was Carson Davis who stole the show for the Nats with a 3-run inside the park home run to go along with a double and also caught a fly ball at second base in the win.
