Code of Conduct

Players tell us they want a referee for every match, yet thousands of match officials drop out because of the abuse and intimidation they receive on and off the field. Respect your referee today and you may just get one for every match this season. Play your part and observe USRC's Respect Code of Conduct for players at all times.

On and off the field, I will:

- Adhere to the Laws of The Game
- Display and promote high standards of behavior
- Promote Fair Play
- Always respect the match officials' decisions
- Never engage in public criticism of the match officials
- Never engage in offensive, insulting or abusive language or behavior
- Never engage in bullying, intimidation or harassment
- Speak to my team-mates, the opposition and my coach/manager with respect
- Remember we all make mistakes.
- Win or lose with dignity. Shake hands with the opposing team and the referee at the end of every game.

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any/all of the following actions may be taken by my club, league or organization:

I may:

- Be required to apologize to team-mates, the other team, referee or coach.
- Receive a warning from the coach
- Receive a written warning from the club committee
- Be required to attend an USRC education course if available in your region
- Be dropped or substituted
- Be suspended from training
- Not be selected for the team
- Be required to serve a suspension
- Be fined
- Be required to leave the club.

In addition:

- The club, league or organization could impose a fine or other sanction against my team for my violation of any of the above.
