

Set up:

Drill: "Passing Duck-Duck-Goose"

Directions:

- Form a circle using 5-6 players and select one to begin with the basketball
- The player with the ball begins the game by passing to one of the other players on the circle then running around the outside of the circle. If he can return to his spot before all of the remaining players have caught and passed the ball, he wins that round.
- Each of the other players must catch and pass the ball across the circle. After they have each player will sit down.
- Allow each player a chance to begin as the goose.
