

A Message from RCX Sports

Dear NFL FLAG Families,

We want to share an update regarding NFL FLAG uniform orders. We are currently experiencing a supply chain disruption that is impacting inventory and causing delays in some orders.

We know how much this matters to your athlete and your team, and we're sorry for the disruption this may cause during the season.

Our team is actively working with multiple suppliers to restore inventory as quickly as possible. As product becomes available, orders will be fulfilled and shipped right away.

We appreciate your patience as we work through this and remain focused on supporting your league and getting uniforms to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
RCX Sports Customer Support
