

Sam Walker - Head Coach

Sam Walker joins EAFC as head coach. Sam comes from a pedigree of USL coaches as he played under Marcelo Serrano (currently of FC Bold USL Championship) and played and coached under Mark McKeever (currently of Des Moines Menace USL League 2).

Sam graduated from Young Harris College where he started his soccer career as a player and then coach. Following his time at Young Harris, he continued his coaching career with the youth teams at RYSA (Rockdale Youth Soccer Association), in Conyers Ga. He has always been involved with his local community and is excited to be a part of a USL League 2 Team in Rockdale County, where he will be working with players from around the area.

Currently, Sam is the director of Soccer at Holy Spirit Preparatory School, where education and athletic development are the main values.

The passion, love for the game and opportunity to coach young athletes to prepare them for the next level of competition as well as to coach at high level has always been an ambition that has lead Sam to continuously embrace this project.

As head coach, his objectives for the team are to be competitive in the deep south division, compete and be ready to win and apply the team correctly.

Sam's experience proves that he has the mentality to create an instilment of belief and to be successful, giving the fans and the local community what they deserve.
