Techne Futbol Now Available at no Cost to New Jersey ODP Players

New Jersey ODP is very excited to announce that we have partnered with Techne Futbol to provide a resource that will guide players in their individual training at no cost to our ODP players. We know this winter will be unlike others in the past, and we are pleased to provide this platform to support your continued development.

You should have received an email invitation to join Techne Futbol so you can access the app and all of the training content for free! If you do not see the email, please be sure to check your spam folder and all email addresses it may have been sent to. Once you register, you can change the email associated with the account. If you have any problems locating the email, please contact us at odp@njyouthsoccer.com.

Voice of the Game – A Documentary About Manfred Schellscheidt

NJ Youth Soccer wants to make our soccer community aware of a GoFundMe campaign to raise funds for a documentary about New Jersey resident Manfred “Manny” Schellscheidt. A National A-1 License holder and former U.S. Men’s National Team Coach, Schellscheidt was inducted into the National Soccer Hall of Fame in 1990. He was previously a State Coach for New Jersey ODP before becoming the head coach of Region 1 Boys ODP. The former Princeton and Seton Hall coach then took over as the head coach of the National U14 Program. Learn more.
