

Evergreen Youth Association - 'R.O.W.' Code of Conduct

		Athletes	Parents/Spectators	Coaches	Commissioners
R	Respect	Teammates, coaches, opponents Use the title 'Coach'	Coaches and officials decisions should be respected at all times Concerns regarding a game, player issue, or coaching decision should wait 24 hours before reaching out to coaches	Clear, kind communication with both parents and players Ensure your team takes care of the school or park grounds; cleaning up after themselves, no destruction	Provide clear, kind communication with coaches, players, parents and the board
O	Ownership	Responsible for your actions and attitude Stay mindful of the organization and school you represent	Prepare the athlete in correct attire Stay mindful of the organization and school you represent; be a model of the respect & sportsmanship we expect from the youth	Stay mindful of the organization and school you represent; be a model of the respect & sportsmanship we expect from the youth Identify athlete development needs and find resources to support them	Attending board meetings regularly Stay mindful of the organization and school you represent; be a model of the respect & sportsmanship we expect from the youth
W	Work Ethic	Put in the hard work and stay focused on developing your skills	Ensure your athlete is on time and prepared for team events	Be prepared for practices and competitions Ensure all athletes get equal instruction, support and opportunities	Being a resource to the coaches Be prepared for the season & bring needs to the board timely

Protocol for those not following the ROW method; initially the issue will be addressed by the next level (parent issues handled by the coach, coach issues will be handled by the commissioner, etc).

Addressing any violation of this mission will be handled outside of practices, games, competitions and away from student athletes if at all possible.

Concerns regarding safety should be brought to the attention of the next level immediately or within 24 hours.

