OTHER UPDATES

- We discovered that our sales tax exemption has been expired since 2017. The prior Treasurer tried to get it renewed but ran into some complications. I gathered all the required documents and submitted everything online. I am waiting to hear back as it takes a few weeks.

- We opened a bank account for the newly formed Middle School Baseball team which we are sponsoring. It is listed under our EIN, but all cashflow and accounting is managed by their Treasurer (Pay Boyle). We have used the same model with the Softball club team for the last few years. At the end of the year, we do have to include their financial statements with our tax filings.
