Qualities of a Tri-Town LL All-Star Manager/Coach:

- Understand that inappropriate behavior by any player, parent, league official, opposing coaching staff, spectator, or umpire is not acceptable at any time - - such actions are grounds for serious consequences up to immediate removal as a manager or assistant coach.
- Will have undergone the standard Little League required background check
- Have open, productive and strong relationships with the League, Tri-Town's Board of Directors, parents, and umpires at all times.
- Recognize that they are representatives of the league and will follow the Board's lead, philosophy, and adhere to the rules as set forth by the Board.
- Have a solid understanding and agree to comply with all Tri-Town and Little League regulations, and code of conduct policies.
- Recognize and accept that Tri-Town Little League has a zero tolerance policy for rules and regulations infractions and non-compliance with League code of conduct and facility use policies .
- Attend all mandatory coaching and safety clinics - no exceptions.
- Lead by example in shaping acceptable behavior patterns whether the team wins or loses.
- Has experience in managing and/or coaching baseball at the level in which the candidate is being considered.
- Respect the judgment and the position of authority of the umpire.
- Exercise their leadership role, but leave the outcome of the ball game in the hands of the players.

I have read and understand the above criteria of a Tri-Town All-Star Manager/Coach and will abide by them throughout the All-Star season.

I have coached in the current regular season in the division I wish to coach for All-Stars. I understand that I must be available for practices (generally 6 days a week for at least 2 hours) and all games starting on or around June 15th through the end of July, maybe longer if my team advances.

While my All-Star Team may not advance through District, State or Regional tournaments, I agree to not schedule vacation or other activities that will interfere with my ability to attend practices and games during the tournament period.
