

Fast Break Basketball Association, Inc. Selection Criteria for Head Coach of Travel Team

Fast Break Basketball is pleased to announce the addition of travel basketball to our program.

Below are some of the factors that will be used when evaluating candidates for Travel Basketball Head Coach:

- Your child MUST be travel basketball material.
- You must be certified by the Rutgers Youth Council.
- You must complete and submit an application to be the head travel coach.
- You WILL BE required to submit to a background check.
- You must complete an online concussion training course
- It is preferred that you have been a basketball head coach for at least 2 seasons in Fast Break (1 is required) and/or coached at least 1 season in a different basketball organization or a different sports organization (please provide details).
- It is preferred that you have previously volunteered (Division Director, Site Supervisor, officer) in the FBBA organization in addition to coaching.
- It is preferred that you have a child in the age group that you are applying to coach in.
- It is imperative that you demonstrate the ability to manage relationships with the children, parents, travel league officials, Fast Break officials as well as the middle and high school coaches. Generally, you must possess the ability to facilitate all of the responsibilities of your team.
- It is essential that you can commit to conduct at least 3 practices per week before the season starts and at least 2 practices per week during the season in addition to game attendance.

Please take the time to seriously consider the above criteria to coach youth travel basketball. We want to make sure that our children have a fun and rewarding experience in a very competitive environment.
