

PARENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT

1. I will let the players play: Cheer them on when they do well, encourage them when they don't. I will not coach or instruct from the stands, and will not interfere with the game. Don't expect more than they can deliver, and most importantly, be a fan of everyone on the team, not just your own child.
2. I will communicate responsibly. If a problem needs to be discussed, I will wait 24 hours to request a meeting with the Manager to calmly discuss the issue. Any safety or health related item should be identified immediately. If a meeting with the Manager cannot be arranged in a timely manner, contact the Age Group President to schedule a meeting.
3. I will let the coaches coach. Your child's coach deserves your cooperation and respect even if you disagree with how the team is managed. If you don't agree with the way the coach manages any aspect of a game or practice, discuss it personally with the coach. Waiting 24 hours to address your concern will facilitate a calm conversation on the issue.
4. I will let the umpires umpire. I will accept the calls made by the umpire and understand that the Warriors Manager is the sole individual responsible for reviewing plays and rules with the umpire. I will not make any negative comments to the umpires or about their calls.
5. I understand that playing for the Park Ridge Warriors is a privilege. Our family made this decision completely voluntarily, without any pressure or coercion. I acknowledge that paying the team fee entitles my son to nothing more than being part of the team and the playing rules outlined by travel league and individual tournaments
6. I agree and understand the reality that playing time cannot be equal. Some players may have more plate appearances, innings pitched, positions and roles than other players. That is the nature of the game and is at the discretion of the coach.
7. I will not enter the dugout or participate in conversations with the team during a game. I will ensure that my son is prepared with everything he needs prior to the game.
8. I will encourage my child to take ownership and be responsible for his / her baseball experience.
9. I will encourage my child to follow the Player Code of Conduct.
10. I will display good sportsmanship and represent my community in a responsible manner.
11. I will respect the facilities that we play in and I will assist in keeping them clean and safe.
12. I will positively encourage the players on the field. While baseball "chatter" is sometimes used during a game, loud obnoxious noises or screaming with the intent to rattle the opposing pitcher is prohibited. Intentional distractions, such as banging or rattling dugout fences will not be tolerated.
13. I will abide by all published rules set out by individual home or away facilities
14. I understand that if my son misses 4 or more house/Warrior games for non injury/sickness can result in immediate removal from your Warriors team
15. I will abide by the Social Media Guidelines.

Social Media Guidelines

All Park Ridge Baseball/Softball (PRBS) Members shall abide by the following guidelines when using social media:

1. Be positive and respectful, and always take the high road. When disagreeing with others' opinions, remain appropriate and polite. If you find yourself in a situation online that is becoming antagonistic, ask the PRBS Board of Directors for advice on how to disengage from the dialogue in a polite and respectful manner that reflects well on PRBS.
  - i. OVER

2. Do not post content that would harm PRBS or damage PRBS’s reputation. Remember that even while you are on your own personal time, you are a representative of PRBS, and people may interpret your online postings or social interactions as though they were official PRBS statements or opinions.
3. Use good judgment when posting comments on any PRBS sites, or your own personal social media sites. If you are unsure whether a comment is appropriate to post, do not post it.
4. Be smart about what you publish. Once something is posted, it exists online forever. Ask yourself, “would I want to see this published in the newspaper or posted on a billboard tomorrow or ten years from now?” If the answer is “no,” do not post.
5. Encourage others to engage in positive interactions on social media. If you are concerned about any PRBS Member’s use of social media, please bring your concerns to the attention of any PRBS Directors, so it can be reviewed further.
6. Personally identifiable information (information, such as a name and date of birth and/or a street address which, when taken together, can identify a particular individual) should not be disclosed in any manner on official PRBS social networking sites without the approval of the Board of Directors.

Violations of the Social Media Policy

The PRBS Board of Directors shall have the authority to monitor and enforce this Social Media Policy. The PRBS Board of Directors, and any individual appointed by the Board of Directors, shall have the authority to remove any inappropriate or offensive comments from official PRBS sites, and to block any individual from posting on any official PRBS social media platform if they determine, in their sole discretion, that such removal or block is in the best interests of PRBS.

Failure by any PRBS Member to adhere to this Social Media Policy shall be considered in violation of the PRBS Code of Conduct, and shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including removal from PRBS programs.

By signing the code of conduct you agree and will abide by the PRBS social media policy and guidelines

Violation of any part of this conduct could result in immediate removal from the team.
