

Introducing Upland Foothill Little Leagues 2018 All Stars

This season 39 players at the Little League Majors and AAA levels were chosen by their peers and team managers for all-star honors in a division-wide vote and drafted to the following teams, which were approved by Upland Foothill Little League's Board of Directors. Qualities considered when selecting all-star players included all-around excellence in fundamental baseball skills such as hitting, fielding, pitching, sliding and base running; adaptability and flexibility in regard to the ability to play multiple positions well; a high aptitude for reading the game and making smart plays; as well as leadership, a winning attitude on and off the field, and good sportsmanship.
