Krystina Cyrus (Fundraising Coordinator)

Andy McKenna (OCYFL Representative)

There were no minutes to review-will review July minutes for the next meeting.

Kris Barry gave the Treasurer's Report and gave out a spreadsheet of charges and deposits. As of the meeting there was about $25,000 in the account. However, there are quite a few expenses on the horizon ie: a new grill, the initial food order for concession stand, and the Riddell bill for the added helmets and pants etc.

Kris Barry and Sean Kennedy will work together to reconcile the list of those participants who have not yet paid their balance. This should generate a little added income.

Nykki Cahill SquadLocker is live! There are gear and accessories available to all with a percentage-based kickback to our Program. The Golf Tournament is this Thursday-SLYF has a tee sign. The fields are reserved for 4:00-8:00 PM the Pep Rally on 9/8/23. Nykki says she will create an email so that parents/fans can upload pictures for us to review and post on social media.

Andy McKenna- the OCYFL meeting was held recently. The meeting was standard and mostly addressed waivers-of which there were not too many. By 9/6/23 we must submit a list of all of the rosters with players names, jersey numbers etc. Weigh-in representatives and coaches meeting took place as well. Tim Corr will check in with those involved.

Seth Malmberg has submitted invoices for $8,100 for pants, helmets, equipment etc. We will pay for it in portions.

Krystina Cyrus has 10 new corporate sponsors-totaling around $5,000. There was about $645 raised on Square App for jersey buyback (plus whatever cash was given). We are going ahead with the SLYF Programs available for purchase by fans. To sell the Programs we need to take team photos ASAP. We will ask that players wear their game day jerseys for a quick team photo Wednesday at practice!

Tim Corr has someone to line the fields-he has a robot, a reasonable fee and already does the soccer fields. Reminder that Pep Rally is 9/8/23 and Picture Day is 9/13/23
