*Sean made the important announcement that effectively immediately, Bill Toulopolous had tendered his resignation as President of SLYF Board of Directors. A new President will be appointed at the Executive Meeting.

Sean Kennedy opened the floor to the head coach nominees to present their intentions.

Mighty Mites:

Brian Cherry

-Has an upcoming second grader. Loved the whole program and had a great experience. Looking forward to having discipline, structure, fundamentals and getting them ready to be mites. Will recruit.

John Fontes

SLYF history-moved up through the program himself. His coaches made an impact and he values the importance of that. He aspires to 'give back'. Had a successful season last year. Strives for preparation for life-not just winning and losing but how to believe in yourself.

Doug Carbone

2021 MM head coach

Wants to work with assistant coaches and make decisions as a group. Wants kids to play with integrity. Learn necessary football skills as well as character development. Military background, level headed-carries himself with integrity, and respect

Marc McGarry

Not present

PeeWees:Erik Barrette

Not in attendance but provided a statement which Erin Benoit read to the Board and the public. "Coached for 3 years-2 years as Head Coach for the Mites. Led the team from an 0-8 season to a 10-0 season including Super Bowl win. Goals to include expanding skills, knowledge and comradery for all players..."

John Crawford

Coaching experience at various sports. Wants to get to the Super Bowl again. I do more and say less. Knowledgeable about the game of football and wants to lead the PeeWees to another title while having fun along the way

Midgets:Tim Corr

"With the help of Eric Daigle. Co-coaching...prepare them for Freshman year. A lot of new players. Fundamentals, skill, hard work and fun."

Motion made to adjourn by Tim Corr, Seconded by Erin Benoit. All in favor.
Sean Kennedy adjourned 6:23 pm.

Board of Directors to stay for a brief executive meeting.
