

HEAT ACCLIMATIZATION

HOW TO

Conduct a 10- to 14-day period during which intensity, duration and the amount of equipment worn are gradually increased to allow athletes to become accustomed to the stress of exercise in the conditions.

The following table comes from USA Football's National Practice Guidelines for Youth Tackle Football and was created specifically for the youth football community.