

2026 CLRA Scholarship Application

Timeline:

1. Applications due Wednesday 4/29/2026
2. Application review Week of May 3-9, 20026
3. Scholarship Interview Week of May 10-16, 2026
4. Awards announced End of May 2026 at Senior awards Scholarship Banquet

Purpose:

CLRA is dedicated to help boys and girls of all backgrounds, with special concern for those from disadvantaged circumstances, develop qualities needed to become responsible citizens and leaders through affordable, educational and recreational activities; and to provide a safe, supervised environment in which to develop these qualities. To give back to these athletes, we'd like to offer a scholarship to a previous participant. This will be awarded to a student athlete who exemplifies the qualities we hope to instill leadership and responsibility, with the intent of helping them realize their maximum potential.

Award:

CLRA is committed to offering two, $500 scholarship to student athletes, pursuing continuing education after graduation in 2026.

Basic Eligibility:

To apply, students must have/be:

- A high school senior
- A former CLRA athlete
- A US citizen, national, or permanent resident
- In good academic standing with a minimum cumulative weighted GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (or equivalent)
- Must plan to enroll at a US accredited, not-for-profit, private or public college or university.
- Must have given back to CLRA as a volunteer or paid assistant coach, official, or camp host, etc.

Ideal Candidate:

An ideal candidate will have:

- A previous athlete within one of CLRA’s seven sports programs.
- Demonstrated leadership ability (e.g., as shown through participation in community service, extracurricular, or other activities)
- Exceptional personal success skills (e.g., emotional maturity, motivation, perseverance, etc.)
