Keep this in mind

No need for new drills, just add in:

- movement
- competition
- simple structure

If your players are:

- engaged
- active
- having fun

You're doing it right.

---

Final note

These games work best when they're part of a consistent practice structure.

If you're looking for a simple way to organize your practices and keep things from feeling repetitive week-to-week, that's exactly what I help coaches with inside my season-ready coaching system.
