Sponsorship of Red Bluff Little League (RBLL) programs must be, for the Sponsor, out of a sense of duty to help the community. While Sponsorship does afford some benefits, the higher purpose is to help RBLL impart the values of teamwork, sportsmanship, and fair play to the children of the community, so that they may someday use these values in becoming good citizens.

Sponsorship of a team in RBLL does not permit the Sponsor to have any right or responsibilities in the operation of RBLL or any team in RBLL, nor does the sponsor have any right or responsibilities in the selection of managers, coaches, or players for any team in RBLL. The sponsor and RBLL are independent contractors with respect to another, and neither shall have any authority to represent or bind the other in any manner or to any extent whatsoever, except as specified herein.

The sponsor shall have the right to use the following term in advertisements, posters, brochures, newsletters, etc.: "Sponsor of a team in RBLL". Sponsorship does NOT give the Sponsor the right to use the word "official" in connection with its Sponsorship. Any reference to the Sponsorship under this agreement must make it clear that the Sponsorship is with a team or teams in RBLL only, and NOT for Little League Baseball. Use of the "keystone logo" or any other logo of Little League Baseball is prohibited unless permission is expressly granted in writing by Little League Baseball International.
