

Legend SC Player Agreement

Legend SC exists to support youth sports and provide a healthy environment for youth to develop and grow. We strive to assist players in developing their soccer skills as well as support player physical and emotional development. Legend SC believes the best youth sports environment is one of cooperation between Club and parents, on behalf of players, creating lifelong memories and experiences as a club community. As a Legend SC player, maintaining a proper code of conduct and striving for excellence will contribute to the success of this mission.

As a player representative of Legend SC, I will:

- be an ambassador of Legend SC. This means I will represent the Club in the best manner possible. I will become the best player possible and will be committed to the learning and growth process.
- carry myself with dignity at all Legend SC events as well as in my community
- conduct myself in a professional manner at all events
 - being on time for all meetings, travel, trainings, games, and tournaments
 - avoiding profanity and vulgar expressions while representing Legend SC
 - I will contribute to a positive environment for my teammates and coaches at all times. This includes the manner in which I conduct myself with my words used through communication on all electronic platforms or in physical encounters. Maintain the highest level of commitment to my Academics
 - respect all officials, coaches, parents, opposing players and coaches, and my teammates
 - maintain the highest level of commitment to my academics
- attend all trainings
 - Missed trainings impact playing time. Any absence needs to be communicated to your coach as soon as possible. Absences for games or tournaments need to be communicated to your coach and team admin. at least 14 days in advance when practical to do so.
- respect my coach and be coachable
 - This includes directly approaching my coach with any and all soccer concerns at the proper time and in the proper environment. Players need to wait 24 hours after a game or tournament close to discuss concerns with the coach.

Cause for dismissal from the program:

- persistent irresponsibility and disrespectful behavior
- destruction of property or violation of State/Federal law
- persistent failure to comply with Legend player code of conduct

please note, all statements listed may also affect future participation

I understand that my attitude, effort and commitment will be the tools that help create a great experience at Legend SC.

Legend SC is committed to being your partner in your soccer development- providing training, professional coaching, a supporting atmosphere, and valuable skills to use throughout life.
